Instructor Bio:

Nancy Pugh Later has ridden horses her entire life. She has competed at the Grand Prix level in the US and Europe and is a bronze, silver, and gold medalist with the USDF. She owns Nancy Later Dressage Horses and is currently competing her own mare, Alexis-D, in the Grand Prix, while also competing horses for others. Later has had four horses on the USET Developing Horse List which has enabled her to participate in the USET sponsored training clinics, symposiums, and compete in the USET Championships. Later conducts clinics nationwide and hosts clinics with other top international trainers at her locations in Florida and Massachusetts. She has also appeared in Dressage Today, The Chronicle of the Horses, Horseman's Yankee Pedlar, Practical Horseman, and The Northeast Equine Journal.
